

HOSPITAL FUND DRIVE TOTAL IS NOW $250,602

The first full week of activity by volunteers in the Warner Hospital building fund campaign has increased the fund by $26,737, it was announced Tuesday night at the volunteers' second report meeting, held in the Hotel Gettysburg press room.

The fund now totals $250,602, including new subscriptions reported by advance committees. The fund objective is $350,000 leaving a total of $99,398 yet to be obtained in the final week of the campaign.

Atty. Richard A. Brown, fund chairman, said an analysis of results so far indicates "a clear picture of success in this campaign provided that all team workers carry out their assignments in accordance with the pattern now emerging." He emphasized that only one sixth of the 4,200 pledge cards in the hands of some 500 volunteers had been reported as subscriptions. He said pledges, many of them under the six-payment plan, account for nearly 75 per cent of the total so far contributed.

"Intensely Effort," Atty. John A. MacPhail and Mrs. John D. Teeter, co-chairmen of the public campaign, urged the volunteers to intensify their efforts in "selling" the plan by which pledges may be made in six equal installments, at four-month intervals, enabling contributors "to make substantial gifts without causing undue strain on budgets or disturbing savings."

Honors for this report period went to Team No. 44, captained by Marvin Bregman, of Littlestown, with 30 subscriptions totaling $1,477. Close behind is Team No. 624, Mrs. Fred G. Pfeiffer, captain. (Continued on Page 9)

REINDOLLAR TO OPEN NEW STORE ON THURSDAY

John J. Reindollar, Fairfield merchant, today announced plans to open a second store. It will be devoted entirely to appliances and floor coverings and toys during the Christmas season.

The new store will be directly across the street from the present Reindollar Hardware and Housewares store in Fairfield in the former McClellan grocery building.

Opening of the new store is scheduled for Thursday. Plans have been made for factory demonstrations and refreshments will be served. Door prizes will be given away Saturday, November 30, as part of the opening program. The store will be open Tuesday.

Reindollar, who has been owner since 1938 of the Fairfield store his grandfather founded in 1885, said the decision to open an additional establishment across the street was prompted by "the fact that we simply had no more room left in the original store to properly display appliances and floor covering. With the additional store we can carry larger supplies."

Wm. Kennedy In Charge William Kennedy will be in charge of the floor coverings-appliance store, Reindollar said, while Stuart Sites and Robert Gilmore will continue to install and maintain appliances and floor covering working out of the new store.

Plans for holiday dances, basketball leagues, a baseball league for 16- to 19-year-olds next summer, and the annual adult education school in January were among matters before the directors of the Gettysburg Recreation Board at their meeting Tuesday evening at the engine house.

Acting Recreation Director John Toggas announced a Thanksgiving dance will be held at the high school November 29, instead of November 27 as previously announced. The dancing will start from 7 to 8 to juke box music, followed by music by Bud Codori's Quintet starting at 8 o'clock.

In addition, the regular Recreation dance will be held November 30, with Toggas explaining: "This will give the students two dances during the Thanksgiving period, and we anticipate large attendances at both, judging by the reports from the youngsters."

Plan Basketball League Sixty-two youths, all "graduates" within the last two years of the Big Little League, have already signed for a 16- to 19-year-olds' baseball league for next summer, Toggas announced. EXCHANGE CLUB HEARS WEIGAND President Carl Prosser presided at the meeting. The speaker was introduced by Stanley Rogers, Black Walnut Boy Scout District field executive.

"We must recognize our youth of today and their problems," Wiegand said, "if we want to remain as citizens and not subjects. We must place more emphasis on human and spiritual values and less on the material things of life."

"We should sit down with our youth and discuss the real meaning of life and its purpose. We must tell youth that it is the character of the people of our country, rather than all the material wealth that makes us such a great nation."

"We must tell them that citizenship is life in action, that respect and responsibility are important in the character makeup of a good citizen. Our job and our challenge is to keep boys and girls right in the way of life."

YI-KWEI SZE IS ACCLAIMED HERE TUESDAY NIGHT

Yi-Kwei Sze (pronounced E-Kway Zee) opened the Gettysburg Concert Association season in Christ Chapel, Thursday evening, and treated the large audience to as masterful a performance as anyone will ever hear. The Chinese-born bass-baritone fully qualified himself as one of the most distinctive and electrifying vocalists on the concert stage. His rich voice, fine musicianship and gracious manner won ever increasing appreciation from his audience during his multiple-lingual recital.

The program he selected equally delighted his listeners in its diversity from the numbers from Handel's "Sers" and "Berenice," with which Mr. Sze opened, to the folk songs with which he concluded. He then further established himself by singing as encores, "Volga Boatman," "Old Man River" and "Chinese Folk Song." If he captivated his audience as his program progressed—which he did—he virtually possessed the assemblage by the time he concluded his recital.

"Exciting Performance" Mr. Sze not only sustained what a New Zealand critic once said of him—"The magnificent bass-baritone Yi-Kwei Sze is surely one of the world's greatest voices"—his excellent performance measured the status the Gettysburg Concert Association has achieved.

Following the Handel numbers, with which he opened, came Le Cor ("The Horn") by Flegier; Saint-Saens' "Danse Macabre" ("Skeleto Dance"); Grieg's "Over the Steppes" and Mussorgsky's "The Seminary," as the second group.

SAY SIMPSON IS "IMPROVED"

Claude Simpson, 66, operator of Elm Court Motel, east of here on the Lincoln Highway, who was stricken Friday and removed to the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Saturday for emergency surgery, was reported "somewhat improved today."

Mr. Simpson suffered a rupture of the main artery in the abdomen while raking leaves at his motel, and was rushed first to the local hospital and then to Baltimore by the Gettysburg Fire Department Ambulance Corps.

At Baltimore, an operation first tried two years ago was employed to remove the artery and replace it with a nylon tube. Physicians said "it will be about three weeks until we know for sure whether everything is successful."

Mrs. Simpson, who had accompanied Mr. Simpson to Baltimore, returned here today.

Fourteen pints of blood were used in transfusions to save Mr. Simpson's life. A number of the pints of blood were being returned today by Marines at Baltimore. Arrangements are being made for local donors to give either at Harrisburg or Baltimore to replenish the blood bank supply used for Mr. Simpson.

DISPOSE OF 3 CASES QUICKLY IN COURT HERE

One Adams County jury found a defendant innocent, another found the defendant guilty in its case and a third was dismissed shortly after its case started, as three trials camp before the Adams County court in the last 24 hours.

Harold S. Blanchard, 32, 205 Buford Ave., was found innocent of driving a motor vehicle without the owner's consent, but was directed to pay the costs. Blanchard's case was the first before a jury in the November term of court. The jury, for which Thomas F. Devine, Hanover R. 5, was foreman, took but 18 minutes to reach its decision Tuesday afternoon, returning with the verdict at 2:38 o'clock.

John Rakus Jr., Mt. Carmel, was found guilty of driving while under the influence of intoxicants after the jury hearing his case had deliberated for 42 minutes this morning.

Had Ten Beers

Rakus testified that he had ten "beers" from 6 o'clock in the evening to 4 the next morning, but said he had not "felt" the drink. Borough policeman Raymond Menges, the arresting officer, said Rakus had forced the borough police car to the side of Chambersburg St. as Rakus' vehicle passed the police auto. When police "caught up" with Rakus on Lincoln Square, Rakus had halted his auto. Officer Menges said Rakus was shaking his wrist watch and looking at the First National Bank clock. Menges said he asked Rakus: "What's the trouble?" Rakus said "My watch is stopped." Menges said he looked at Rakus' wrist watch, found it had the same time as the bank clock and appeared to be in perfect running order.

Menges, Officer Luther Stevens and Floyd McMullen, turnkey at the jail at the time, testified that Rakus would give no information to them, and was placed in the detention cell at the jail overnight.

The jury hearing the Rakus case included Albert J. Bair, Littlestown; Eugene Bostwick, Fairfield; Guy Deardorff, Aspers; Mrs. Lillian Dillon, Orrtanna; Ernest Neill, New Oxford R. 2; Miss Angela M. Pink, McSherrystown; Mrs. Miriam Guise, Gettysburg R. 4; Miss Betty Hall, Orrtanna R. 1; Gladys V. Heiser, Gettysburg R. 2; Beattie M. Henry, Littlestown; Donald V. Manning, Hillcrest Place, and Sylvester Seymour, Gettysburg R. 5.

Two Enter Pleas

Trial of the proprietors of the Bar 30, John J. Funk, Eleanor C. Funk and Myles S. Elsenhart, New Oxford R. 1, on charges of selling intoxicants to minors ended after the first witness had appeared on the stand. The court took a ten-minute recess that stretched to 32 minutes, and then returned. Conferences with attorneys and the court had taken place during the recess, and after court reconvened Mr. and Mrs. Funk entered pleas of nolo contendere to the charge and the charge against Myles S. Elsenhart was dismissed.

The court, in excusing the jurors, told them that "Mr. and Mrs. Funk (Continued On Page 2)

CARLOS GARCIA ASSURED OF PRESIDENCY

MANILA (AP)—Carlos P. Garcia, political heir of the late President Ramon Magsaysay, virtually clinched the Philippine presidency today. But the voters were giving him an opposition leader as vice president.

Garcia and the apparent next vice president, Diosdado Macapagal, are both considered good friends of the United States.

Unless there is a complete reversal in the trend, this 11-year-old republic will have for the first time a vice president with politics different from the chief executive's.

150,000 Vote Lead

With 25 per cent of the estimated 4 1/2 million votes counted, Garcia, the Nationalista party standard bearer, held a 150,000-vote lead over sugar magnate Jose Yulo, a Liberal.

Macapagal, Liberal who spent his boyhood in a grass hut, was leading his Nationalista opponent, House Speaker Jose Laurel Jr., by a thumping 282,000-vote margin.

The latest presidential returns showed: Garcia, 504,741; Yulo, 353,188; Manuel P. Manahan, Progressive, 284,793; Sen. Claro M. Recto, Nationalist-Citizen, 118,303; Antonio Quirino, Independent Liberal, 22,522.

Not Conceding

Yulo's lieutenants said their candidate had no intention of conceding at this point. A Liberal party statement questioned the accuracy of the trend and charged that the Nationalistas were waging a "ruthless propaganda drive" to give the impression of a Garcia sweep.

But returns from Yulo strongholds must have disappointed Liberal leaders. These results gave Yulo only a slim margin over Garcia, especially in central Luzon which was swept by a typhoon on election day yesterday.

Nationalista leaders indicated Macapagal likely will be put on ice during his four-year term as vice president.

The post is little more than nominal. Garcia held it under Magsaysay. Ordinarily vice presidents have been assigned to Cabinet jobs.

At Shippensburg, the program is under the direction of Tom Crist, associate professor of health and physical education at the host college.

Judge Dale F. Shugart of the Cumberland County courts will discuss some phase of juvenile delinquency.

Sectional meetings of the students are planned on problems of driver education. Sandra Holoka of Gettysburg High will be student leader of a section discussing "What does the state driver testing program prove?" Monica Machack of Fairfield High will be student leader of the section discussing "How to determine parental responsibility with the teen-age driver." Miss Shirley Showmaker of Littlestown High will lead the section on "Why are insurance rates for the 16-25 year age group increasing?"

Gettysburg High, under the direction of John O'Brien, will send four representatives to the conference. Clayton L. Evans of Littlestown High and John McAndrews of Fairfield High also plan to send four students.

RUSSIA WILL FIRE MORE DOGS INTO "SPACE"

MOSCOW (AP)—Izvestia said today the Soviet Union will shoot many more dogs into space before risking human life in such experiments.

The Soviet government newspaper said the first human space travelers would not be adventurers but "the best people to be found in Soviet society."

Scientific methods of protecting future pilots and passengers from harmful effects must be created beforehand by means of experiments with animals in space, the paper added.

Pravda, the Communist party paper, in a long review of the Soviet earth satellite program, gave what appeared to be the first authentic report with pictures of the structure of the Sputniks themselves.

Laika Not Mentioned

But neither Pravda nor Izvestia made any direct mention of Laika, the dog passenger on Sputnik II.

Prof. Vladimir Chernigovsky, a member of the Soviet Academy of Medical Science, said in the Moscow News today there was no intention of returning the dog Laika to earth. The professor participated in the preflight training of the dog.

Pravda reported that the second satellite was rocket-shaped with a pointed nose. It was actually the last stage rocket of the carrier. Inside was a sphere patterned after Sputnik I. The sphere contained the dog, radio transmitters and other equipment.

Pravda's pictures and drawings indicated no provision had been made for catapulting the dog back to earth.

"I THINK OF HER"

I think of her when shadows fall . . . across the evening sky
I see her face before me and . . . I hear her pensive sigh her memory becomes alive
we share a fond embrace together we are roving
while sweet dreams interlace
I pause to feel her tender kiss a warm and blissful thrill oh if these thoughts of mine would last I'd climb the highest hill but now she slowly fades away memories are all I own the heavens now are filled with stars
I find myself alone
yet every night when shadows fall
I'll think of her again
together we'll go roving into the way-back-when.

Hospital Fact

Long before the U-235 era, atomic weights had a hospital role. When a patient at Warner Hospital needs an oxygen tent, the life-sustaining gas enters at the top. Heavier than nitrogen-laden air, oxygen descends. The patient's breathing keeps it circulating. Helium, much lighter than nitrogen, sometimes replaces it in an oxygen-containing mixture, easier for asthmatic inhalation. The tendency of high-pressure areas to invade low-pressure ones is called into service when an operating room is kept under high pressure. The outgoing air movement, instead of inviting germs in, gives them the bum's rush.

In 1921 Robert S. Reindollar took over and conducted and enlarged the store through the years until 1938 when the present third generation owner took over.

Large Stock

Since 1940 the business included floor coverings of all types. The additional store will permit larger supplies of the regular felt base linoleum and increased supplies of Armstrong inlaid linoleum and tile, and plastic wall tile. In addition a larger stock of General Electric appliances, for which Reindollar has been distributor since 1946, will be possible.

Normally, Reindollar said today, toys will be for sale in the original Reindollar store—but for the Christmas season, in order to display the hundreds of additional toys that will be available, the toy department will be located in the new store. Reindollar said the increased space will permit the store to have the largest toy selection available in its history.

To attain a great and solid character should be the aim of us all. It far exceeds and race to accumulate money, or the mere brief period of popular acclaim. Character alone distinguishes a person, no matter what one's origin might be.

Character is the sum total of all that a person is in himself. It embodies spirit, courage, independence, humility, and personal pride in honest achievement. Character in a person is what inspires confidence and sets him apart. The elder J. P. Morgan once stated that he would loan a man a million dollars on character alone!

The leaders in every enterprise in life are men of character. People follow them because they present a program of honesty and vision. Their stories fill the pages of history. We should emulate and pay them homage. You will find them in every walk of life. You buy from firms and individuals because you believe in them because of their character.

The example of character is to be found everywhere. Without it no success is possible. Character is an outstanding trait that we may all follow with enthusiasm and confidence. Character is what has enlivened every worthwhile enterprise. Character is what has made America the "land of the free."

To our pioneers we owe more than we can ever repay. Character and hardships have been our heritage. We have been multi-blessed. Said Theodore Roosevelt: "Alike for the nation and the individual, the one indispensable requisite is character—character that does and dares as well as endures, character that is active in the performance of virtue no less than firm in the refusal to do aught that is vicious or degraded."

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Dividends"

NOVEMBER DREAMS
In these days of bleak November,
Days when all the world grows
sober.

And the field have turned to yellow,
And the leaves to earth have blown,
Then, somehow, I seem to mellow
And my soul, like some old cello
Seems to strike a cord that's sweeter

Than it ere before has known,
And a sense of comfort fills me
With that purer, richer tone.

Often then I sit and ponder,
Gazing lazily out yonder,
Dreaming dreams of bygone pleasures

That I knew so long before;
And I think how, with her treasures.

Nature kindly heaps our measures
Ere she wraps the dead leaves round her,
Leaving us with bounteous store,
Ere she sinks to pleasant slumber
When her fruitful time is o'er.

In these days of bleak November,
Days when all the world grows
sober,

Then I think of one who's sleeping
Neath the fading grasses there;
And I strive to keep from weeping,
For her memory I'm keeping
And the joys she left behind her
Still are roseate and fair;
Like the fruits of bygone summer
They sustain me through despair.

Adams County Supports All Democrats With Large Majorities: Riding on the high tide of the greatest national democratic landslide in 40 years, Adams county voters swing into the democratic column with apparent victories for all candidates.

Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt not only battered out a national victory, winning all but six states, he also battered out a 1,032 margin over President Hoover in Adams county. Harry L. Haines, of Red Lion, was elected congressman from the district and Dr. H. M. Hartman ran well ahead of the entire democratic ticket in the county to win nomination as assemblyman from the county. John S. Rice, Arentsville, defeated State Senator C. H. Clippinger to win the state senatorship.

STEVENSON MAY ACCOMPANY IKE TO PARIS MEET

WASHINGTON (AP)—Adlai Stevenson held out the possibility today he may accompany President Eisenhower to a Paris meeting next month designed to increase Allied cooperation.

From a haze of confusion, the role of the Democrat whom Eisenhower twice defeated for the presidency emerged as that of adviser—and possibly a participant—in proposals Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles will present to a North Atlantic Treaty meeting of heads of state in Paris Dec. 16.

An error by James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, brought on the uncertainty which both Hagerty and Stevenson later sought to clarify.

To Be Kept Informed
Stevenson said he had informed Dulles a week ago that "while I could not undertake to formulate the PP's policies, I would gladly review and discuss our government's proposals before they were put into final shape."

Hagerty said Stevenson "will be kept informed of the developing program and will, we hope, discuss the items in the program with the administration before they are finalized."

In a bid for bipartisan support, Stevenson reportedly had been offered at first a key position in both formulating and presenting United States proposals to strengthen NATO against Russia's growing missile strength.

May Go Along
Even in the more limited advisory role, officials let it be known that Stevenson could go with Eisenhower and Dulles to Paris if he chose to.

In New York last night, he said he would be willing to attend the Paris meeting. But whether he would go, he said, would depend on the shape of the U. S. proposals. He indicated one condition might be an increase in foreign aid which would require a relaxation of the 275-billion-dollar limit on the federal debt.

By implication he left himself free to criticize any of the administration's proposals with which he disagrees.

Stevenson issued his statement after Hagerty had announced at first that Stevenson would limit his cooperation to commenting on the program after it had been developed.

Hagerty, conceding later he had made an error, said he had misunderstood the meaning of the word "comment." He agreed Stevenson's role would be to consult and comment while the policies were in preparation.

PROCLAMATION

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader in a proclamation today urged Pennsylvanians to observe Thursday, Nov. 28, as Thanksgiving Day "in a spirit of reverent thankfulness to Almighty God for His many gifts."

GIVE TENTATIVE APPROVAL FOR CHURCH CHANGE

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania's Evangelical Lutheran Synod has given provisional approval for a new geographical distribution of its 549 congregations.

Final approval, in the form of a constitutional change, must be given by two-thirds of the delegates to the next synod convention in May.

The controversial change, studied for two years, provides for 18 small districts in place of the seven large conferences which have existed for nearly two centuries. The district plan was approved yesterday by a vote of 306 to 115. The vote was taken at an adjourned session of the synod's 120th annual convention.

The delegates also gave provisional approval to other proposals in a sweeping revision of the synod's constitution.

18-30 Congregations
But the district plan was the only controversial point in the constitutional revision.

Each district will have from 18 to 30 congregations and will be administered by district deans. The conferences have up to 130 churches administered by unsalaried presidents who travel widely in addition to serving their own congregations.

Opponents to the district plan proposed that the conferences be reduced from seven to three and headed by full-time paid presidents.

In addition, the district plan will provide for the first time in the synod's history—geographical representation on the synod's four boards. Each district will send a representative to the executive inter missions, home missions and Christian education boards.

The Pennsylvania Synod is the largest and oldest in the United Lutheran Church of America. Its 549 congregations have 380,000 members.

Big Search Party Can't Locate Plane

HONOLULU (AP)—The Philippine Sea and its covey of planes today enter the critical area in their search for a Honolulu-bound Pan American airliner which vanished last Friday with 44 persons.

The big carrier, with 29 radar-tracking planes and 12 helicopters, completed the first full day of participation in the widespread search yesterday without a clue.

Its planes are covering a strip 200 miles wide along the airliner's route. Four escort destroyers and two submarines range ahead and to the sides.

The airliner, Romance of the Skies, vanished Friday after sending a routine position report 1,028 miles east of Honolulu.

To Let Gas Lights Burn Through Day

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Philadelphia, which still has 7,500 gas street lamps scattered on many of its narrower lanes and alleys, has decided it can save money by letting the lamps burn day and night.

Streets Commissioner David N. Smallwood told city councilmen yesterday the city could save $100,000 a year by dispensing with a $29 yearly cost per lamp for an automatic system to turn the gas off each morning and on again at night.

PAY QUESTION IN ANTARCTICA TO BE PROBED

By RENNIE TAYLOR
MCMURDO SOUND, Antarctica (AP)—The first U. S. congressman to set foot in the antarctic said today he would investigate reports that many Navy men here are being forced into debt by a Navy ruling.

Rep. John P. Saylor (R-Pa.), a member of the House Interior and Insular Affairs and Veterans Affairs committees, landed at the McMurdo Sound base from New Zealand with Rear Adm. George J. Dufek Saylor, a Navy veteran, said a ruling by the Navy comptroller's office had created a pay situation that apparently was in urgent need of correction.

Saylor recommended that the United States plan to continue operations in the antarctic after the International Geophysical Year ends Dec. 31, 1958.

Favors Extra Pay
Dufek, the naval commander in the antarctic, said a delay in settling the pay question may interfere with planning for future antarctic operations. Dufek said he favored extra compensation for men serving in the antarctic.

Saylor heard reports that some Navy men might have to appeal to the Navy Relief Society to get them out of financial holes after serving voluntarily for a year or more in the antarctic.

Widespread bitterness among Navy personnel here stems from two contradictory Navy rulings. In addition to regular pay, their travel orders entitle them to per diem payments ranging by rank from $1.85 to $5 or more. They were allowed to draw in advance the money, which totaled from several hundreds to more than $1,500 a man.

Per Diem Rejected
Subsequently the comptroller ruled that Navy men stationed in the antarctic are not entitled to per diem payments. Some who have gone home have been required to repay advances out of their regular pay.

Cmdr. Herbert W. Whitney of Arlington, Mass., a Seabee officer who accompanied Saylor, said bills to correct the situation and to give extra pay for remote and isolated duty are now being prepared by the Defense Department.

Saylor flew in on an Air Force Globemaster. The 49-year-old Johnstown, Pa., congressman plans to visit Little America and the South Pole station and possibly other U. S. bases if transportation facilities permit.

AF STUDIES MANNED SPACE SHIP PLANS

By JOHN A. HARRIS
WASHINGTON (AP)—An Air Force general says the United States already is doing some preliminary thinking about a manned space ship—although such a project still is a long way off.

Brig. Gen. H. F. Gregory, commander of the Air Force Office of Scientific Research, said in a speech yesterday: "Although it may be somewhat early to be building manned space ships, it is not too early to be thinking about exploratory research in this area. 'In fact we have been doing it for some time.'"

4,000-Mile Rocket
Gregory described the Air Force project Farside, a recent series of rocket tests, as "one of many high-altitude scientific research efforts that will be required... for the successful conquest of space."

The Air Force has said previously that six rockets were fired in the Farside tests in the Pacific and there have been unofficial reports that the sixth shot went more than 4,000 miles into the sky. Gregory said there was no foundation for reports that Farside personnel had been pressured to speed up the project as a result of Russia's first satellite launching Oct. 4.

Truman claims Program
It was that event which touched off a general clamor for accelerating the U. S. missile and satellite programs. The second Soviet satellite, one carrying a dog was hung in space Nov. 10.

Former President Harry Truman, in Washington to attend a luncheon in his honor, told newsmen: "We had a missile program before I left the White House—it was broken up after I left."

But about the same time, Sen. Bennett (R-Utah) issued a statement saying the Truman administration must be blamed "for our lag behind the Russians in the ballistic missile field."

"Monstrous Neglect"
"The record of the Truman administration on missiles reveals a monstrous neglect bordering on the criminal," Bennett said.

"The Truman legacy was so deplorable that the Eisenhower administration had to start virtually from scratch to begin to catch up with the Russians."

Moscow reported last night that Sputnik II would complete its 138th orbit of the earth at 6 a.m. today, but it gave no information on what had happened to the dog riding in the satellite.

595 Revolutions
Tass news agency also said that by this morning, Sputnik I would have circled the earth 591 times, and that its carrier rocket would have made 595 revolutions.

Radio Moscow, meanwhile, predicted that the first satellite would drop into the atmosphere and burn in late December or early January, and that the carrier rocket would come down somewhat

The Littlestown seventh and eighth grade football team, led by "Peewee" Yingling who scored all three touchdowns, defeated the Annunciation school griders at McSherrytown Tuesday evening 21-6. The victory ended the season for Dick Thomas' Little Flashes who compiled a 3-2-1 record.

Annunciation tabbed its only score on the kickoff which Mike Groff ran back 90 yards for the TD.

Littlestown came right back with two scores in the first quarter. Yingling went over from the 3 to cap a long drive and Bob Hahn rushed for the point. The Flashes took over at midfield following a punt and marched to the 2 from where Yingling smacked over. Again Hahn ran for the point.

Shippensburg Will Host Bubbler "11"

"Bud" Ecker's fast improving Bolling Springs High School football team will meet Shippensburg on the latter's field Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Hounds, 6-2 following their one-point loss to Hanover Monday, are favorites to win.

In Tom Reed the Greyhounds have one of the best running backs in the area. In his first 95 carries to this season he amassed 751 yards for a 7.9 average. If the underdog Bubbler is to win they must stop him.

TRADITIONAL GRID TILTS FOR WEEKEND

NEW YORK (AP) — Traditional games dot the college football map. But background means little in picking the winners. Getting the right backfield would be a much bigger help.

So, off we go:
Texas A&M over Rice: Bear Bryant's Aggies are No. 1 in the nation. Rice is only second best in the Southwest Conference.

Oklahoma over Notre Dame: In belief that the Sooners have recovered from their midseason slump. You can see for yourself on your TV screen.

Auburn over Georgia: The Auburn defense is one of the best. Ohio State over Iowa: In the past 10 years the home team always has won in this crucial series. The Buckeyes do the entertaining this time and hope to clinch the Rose Bowl bid.

Michigan State over Minnesota: This could be closer than it looks if the Spartans spend too much time remembering their Notre Dame victory and if Bobby Cox is back to normal.

Tennessee over Mississippi: Everything is at stake here: The Sugar Bowl bid for a possible Southeastern Conference title. Mississippi hasn't won from Tennessee since 1948.

Army over Tulane: Bob Anderson to do some more galloping. The game has been switched to West Point.

Duke over Clemson: Clemson has Harvey White but Duke has too much of everything else. Oregon over Southern California: By about a touchdown.

Texas Christian over Texas: TCU rested last week while Texas was being dumped out of the Cotton Bowl picture in a 6-6 draw with Baylor.

Syracuse over Colgate, Penn State over Holy Cross.

BERMUDIAN JT. TOPS BUBBLERS

"Pete" Kemper's Bermudian Joint High School football varsity wound up its season with a 2-2 mark by coming from behind to defeat the Bolling Springs junior varsity 14-7 Tuesday evening on the Bubbler's gridiron.

After Bolling Springs tabbed a touchdown following a sustained drive in the second period, Bermudian scored in each of the last two quarters.

"Butch" Griffie recovered a Bubbler fumble on the opponent's 40 to set the stage for the first score. Allen Wonders racing from that point to hit pay dirt. Martin Tate bucked over for the point.

Wonders fired a 40-yard pass to Dean Tate to open the drive for the second Bermudian tally in the final period. The aerial moved the ball to the 30. Martin Tate scampered to the 2 on a reverse and then Wonders cracked across the line. Martin Tate lugged the leather over for the extra point.

ENCOURAGED SEBO POINTS FOR COLUMBIA

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Earnest, soft-spoken Penn Coach Steve Sebo, heartened by his team's loyalty and an upset victory over Yale, turned a deaf ear today to student and newspaper criticism of his season's record and concentrated on Saturday's game with Columbia.

The Penn squad was winless in six games before Saturday's 33-20 triumph over the Elis. This train of humiliating defeats prompted demands from the Penn Student newspaper and others for Sebo's resignation or firing. But Sebo apparently still has the backing of those with the final say-so.

University President Gaylord P. Harnwell had this estimate of the situation:

"I would like us to win a few more games, but I don't feel there is anything alarming. I have felt no concerted action by any organized group. People have called to say they hear Mr. Sebo was fired and all I can tell them is that we do not operate that way. The administration plans no action and I contemplate none."

One Not Enough

Although sentiment against Sebo seems to have softened a bit since Saturday, realistic observers say that it is going to take more than one victory to placate his harshest critics. Some of these, it is told, will be satisfied only with Sebo's departure, whatever showing his team makes the rest of the season.

So much has been said against Sebo as coach that it is easy to overlook his defenders, who feel that he is taking an unwarranted rap. Sebo, in friendly opinion, is a sound football technician who is being criticized for player shortcomings and for not rousing his team to derring-do with inspirational ballyhoo.

Just last night added support for Sebo came from the Delaware County Coaches Association, representing 23 high schools. The group voted backing for him "in his quiet fight for survival against critics in press, alumnus association and student body."

Gets "Moral Support"

"Better than anyone else, the high school coaches said, 'we understand the handicaps Sebo faces and want him to know he has our moral support to his fullest extent.'"

Sebo himself refused to speculate on the future beyond the Columbia game. "I haven't said anything about it and I don't intend to," he asserted. Nor would he hazard a guess on his squad's chances against the Lions.

To Miss Young

Sebo was encouraged by the team's eager beaver attitude. Because it was Veterans Day, he had not expected to hold a practice session Monday. The squad turned out anyway, for a light workout.

Later, the squad presented Sebo the ball used in the Yale game.

Sebo wasn't a bit happy over the prospect of doing without the services of senior fullback Bill Young, who suffered badly bruised ribs in the Yale encounter. Young ran 2 yards for the first Penn touchdown last Saturday. He has been unable to practice so far this week and it appears almost certain he'll be out of action Saturday.

One Win Apiece

Asked about tactics and strategy for Saturday's game, Sebo said, "We'll be playing the same game we always play—no surprises. Columbia has a better squad than they did last year at this time, when we lost 20-7."

Columbia, with a 1-6 record so far for the season, has met five Ivy League teams which also have tangled with Penn. The Lions beat Brown 23-20, and Brown defeated Penn 20-7. On the other hand, Yale romped over Columbia, 19-0. Both Penn and Columbia have lost to Dartmouth, Princeton and Harvard.

ST. LOUIS — Frank Lane was hired as general manager of the Cleveland Indians. Vaughan (Bin) Devine, a front office employee with St. Louis for 18 years, was named the Cardinals' new general manager.

CLAREMORE, Okla. — Ralph Terry, young righthanded pitcher for the Kansas City Athletics, was reported recuperating from minor but painful injuries to his back shoulders and knee suffered in a Sunday auto accident.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Aurecol ($3.40) set an American track record in winning the $3,500 High Cloud Purse at Churchill Downs with a clocking of 1:29 for 7½ furlongs.

LAUREL, Md. — Prince Du Houline ($106.20) closed fast in the stretch to take the $25,000-added Maryland Fall Handicap at Laurel.

The first stadium erected on the site of Michigan State's present 76,000-seat football house was built in 1923 to hold 14,000 fans.

Carter Kicked Goal In 1940

Francis "Pooney" Carter, and not Bob Fortenbaugh, was the last Gettysburg High School football player to kick a field goal prior to Earl Little's boot against Carlisle Saturday night.

A more thorough search through the Gettysburg Times' records revealed that Carter kicked a 25-yard angle placement, also against Carlisle, in the final quarter of the game played here September 27, 1940. Gettysburg won the game 16-0. Ross Sachs and Eddie Shoop scoring touchdowns. Ray Staley held the ball for Carter's kick.

FRANK LANE ARRIVES TO START TASK

By CLETE JONES
CLEVELAND (AP) — An explosive 61-year old baseball executive with a reputation for shrewd trading is faced today with making pennant contenders of the Cleveland Indians—and fill spacious Municipal Stadium with fans who will pay to see them play.

Frank Lane, appointed general manager of the Indians yesterday, arrived in Cleveland last night. Lane left St. Louis and his job as Cardinals' general manager to succeed fired Hank Greenberg.

"Our first job," Lane said after he stepped off the plane, "is to find out what the team needs."

"I'm going to do everything and anything I can to help."

Need 2nd Base Help

Ten days after he took over as Chicago White Sox' general manager in 1943 he got Billy Pierce and $10,000 from the Detroit Tigers for catcher Aaron Robinson.

Lane said he wanted to get acquainted with the team and talk things over with Bobby Bragan, Tribe field manager, before commenting on any possible trades.

He did mention, however, that "from a distance" the Indians looked as if they needed help around second base. He said he talked with John McHale, general manager of the Detroit Tigers, by telephone in St. Louis yesterday.

Shortstop Harvey Kuenn, who spent part of last season at third base for Detroit, was discussed.

Attendance Falling

Dwindling attendance, which more than anything led to the ouster of Greenberg, was because the "baseball spirit" was lying dormant in Cleveland," Lane said.

"That big Cleveland stadium appeals to me. So does the demonstrated enthusiasm of Cleveland people for baseball. They've showed it before and if I do my job properly they'll show it again."

AUBURN CENTER GIVEN HONORS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
For making the key play against Mississippi State that kept Auburn in the unbeaten and untied class, sophomore center Jackie Burkett was named the Lineman of the Week today.

You may recall the situation at Birmingham last Saturday. State and Auburn were tied 7-7 in the last quarter. State had the ball deep in its own territory and Bill Schoenrock dropped back to punt from his end zone.

Burkett, a 6-4, 215-pounder broke through to make it impossible for Schoenrock to get off the kick. When he tried to run with the ball he was nailed by Burkett and Auburn end John Whitley for a safety. That put Auburn ahead 9-7 and provided the winning points in the Tigers' eventual 15-7 victory.

BULLETS HOST TEMPLE; THREE LINEMEN STAR

Gettysburg College's football team, rolling through one of the finest seasons in the school's history, will shoot for its seventh victory here Saturday against Temple University. The game will start at 1:30 p.m.

Saturday's will be the second contest of a series that began just last year when Gettysburg squeezed out a 13-7 triumph at Temple Stadium.

Temple, crushed last Saturday by Delaware in a 71-7 rout, takes a record of one victory and four losses into Saturday's contest. The lone Owl win was a 14-13 decision over Lafayette, a team which Gettysburg walloped, 46-20.

Capitan Has 9 TDs

Gettysburg, with six wins and one loss, is fresh from a 39-0 victory over Scranton, a game in which all-state Bullet fullback Frank Capitani scored three touchdowns to bring his season total to nine. The Bullets, in addition to the triumphs over Scranton and Lafayette, have beaten Bucknell, Western Maryland, Albright, and Muhlenberg. Gettysburg's lone setback came on October 12 in a 20-7 defeat at the hands of powerful Lehigh.

The superior play of three Bullet linemen has had much to do with the success to date.

Called three of the best linemen in Gettysburg's history by head coach Gene Haas, tackle Al Kemp-ton, Clifton, N. J.; guard Don Harman, Lancaster, Pa., and center, John Yohn, Palmyra, Pa., have been brilliant on both offense and defense. Kemp-ton and Harman are Seniors and Yohn is a Junior.

Kemp-ton, a 6-1, 215-pound paratrooper veteran and the winner of this week's Philadelphia Maxwell Club Award for his play in the Bullets' recent 46-20 victory over Lafayette, has been a starter since his Sophomore year. In addition to his top-notch defensive play, he is the offensive lineman the team depends on for crucial yardage.

Harman Improving

Harman, an on-again, off-again starter in his Sophomore season, has been a regular for the past two campaigns, and he's gotten better with every contest. A graduate of McCaskey High School in Lancaster, he's a six-foot, 200-pounder with plenty of speed. Harman rates as one of those "unsung heroes" who does a brilliant — but rather unnoticed — job each week. Harman has rates him with any of Gettysburg's all-time guards, and that includes four all-stars.

Yohn, a six-foot, 200-pounder, was named to the all-state honorable mention list as a Sophomore. Outstanding on offense and a rugged blocker, he, along with fullback Frank Capitani, gives Gettysburg two of the finest linebackers in Pennsylvania football. Yohn, a jack-of-all-trades, has played guard, tackle and end in addition to his center assignments.

EXPECT LARGE CROWD AT GHS, HANOVER GAME

A capacity crowd is expected to jam Sheppard-Myers field at Hanover Friday night for the Gettysburg-Hanover football game, 29th in the series extending back to 1923.

Hanover, 6-1-1 and leading the South Penn Conference race with a 5-0 mark, needs a victory to remain ahead of hard-pressing Carlisle, 4-0. On the other hand the Warriors, out of title consideration, are scrapping to remain in the first division.

During the long series Hanover has topped 17 decisions as compared to 10 for Gettysburg. Only one game ended in a tie, 7-7 in 1932. The Nighthawks have won four of the last five games, triumphing last year by a 46-6 margin. It was the Hawks who handed Gettysburg its first loss after the unbeaten 1951 campaign by a 9-7 triumph at Hanover in the following year.

Win Squeakers

Prior to the opening of the season Hanover was ranked as a dark horse in the South Penn race and it has come along in true championship style by winning several tight affairs. The Hawks still have a makeup game with Carlisle which has been scheduled for Thanksgiving Day or the following Friday.

Following Friday's game the Warriors wind up their season by entertaining Hershey here next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Friday marks the first time this season a full slate of conference games are listed. In addition to the Gettysburg-Hanover scrap, Chambersburg will play at Carlisle, Middletown at Hershey, and Mechanicsburg at Waynesboro.

MAJOR CHANGES IN STYLING IN NEW FORD CARS

The 1958 Ford car line featuring major styling changes, the most efficient engines in the car's history, a new automatic transmission and new optional air suspension is now on display at Ford dealerships, J. O. Wright, Ford Motor Company vice president and Ford Division general manager, announced today.

"At a cost of $135,000,000 we have developed a new Ford that incorporates some of the most extensive changes ever made in the car," Mr. Wright said.

Historically, auto companies have made basic changes in their cars every three years, he pointed out.

"But in its 1958 models, Ford actually created fundamental design and engineering changes just one year after its completely new 1957 model," he said.

Demonstrating this change are twenty-one models on two separate wheel-bases: the Fairlane and Fairlane 500, with an overall length of 207 inches, and the Custom, Custom 300 and the station wagon, measuring 202 inches.

"Sculptured in Metal" The external appearance of the new car features Ford's sculptured-in-metal treatment in which styling lines are molded into the sheet metal itself.

The new distinctive styling is emphasized in a front view of the massive, wrap-around one-piece bumper with anodized aluminum "jet intake" grille, dual headlights, and Power Flow hood. New sheet metal treatment incorporates redesigned front fenders, new roof with seven front-to-rear flutes or grooves, and trunk lid and rear quarter panel innovations. From the rear, the 1958 Ford is distinctive with a "V" sculptured trunk lid flaring into twin safety oval taillights.

Ford introduces the newest and most modern V-8 overhead valve engines in its 1958 line—the 332 and 352 cubic inch displacement engines. The result of more than 25 years' sales and engineering leadership in V-8 engines. The result of more than 25 years' sales and engineering leadership in V-8 engines. These engines combine new highs of efficiency, durability and economy with the added time and cost savings of quick service accessibility.

RED HINTS USSR FAVORS INDIA'S ARMS TALK PLAN

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (U.S.A.)—A Russian delegate indicated Tuesday his government would give serious thought to an Indian compromise plan to get East-West disarmament talks going faster.

A Soviet delegate dropped this hint when asked by a reporter if he favored the Indian move to almost double the size of the Disarmament Commission. The plan aims at getting the Soviets to abandon their threat to boycott the 12-nation body and is five-nation subcommittee.

The Russian official said that, if the Indians bring their plan for-

A NEW AND EXPANDED LINE OF STATION WAGONS BY FORD, producer of the most popular wagons, is offered for 1958. New to the line is the six-passenger Ford Ranch Wagon (above), one of Ford's six new models built on body shells entirely separate from the Ford passenger cars. Ford spent $185,000,000 on changes, including safety dual headlights, new jet intake grille and massive bumper, sculptured metal treatment throughout the car's exterior, and twin safety taillights as well as a completely new power train from engine to axle, all-new Cruise-O-Matic drive and optional Ford-Aire suspension. The 1958 Fords will be displayed at all Ford dealerships beginning November 7.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (U.S.A.)—James R. Killian has his hands full. But that doesn't mean he has his work cut out for him.

The 53-year-old Killian, president of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, now becomes another special assistant to President Eisenhower.

His job will be to help develop missile and satellite. From the way Eisenhower in his Thursday night broadcast described Killian's assignment it sounds big and impressive.

Sounds Vague But it also sounds pretty vague. And the important point for the nation is: Does the particular title given Killian—assistant to the President—carry enough weight to get the job done? How much authority will he have?

Eisenhower didn't say exactly. He described Killian's job this way: He will be aided by a staff of mally before the General Assembly when it takes up the arms question, probably this week, the Soviet delegation would give it a careful hearing. The plan would add some 10 nations to the commission.

May Quit Old Plan The delegate gave the impression his government has no intention of standing by its demand that all 82 U. N. members be included in the arms talks—a proposal that already has been defeated in the Assembly's Political Committee.

Diplomats feel Russia will agree eventually to the Indian plan, or any other compromise that gives them a face-saving way to back off from their boycott threat and satisfy their demands that the disarmament machinery be expanded.

Informed sources said the Western powers will give heed to the Indian proposal, but only after the Assembly passes a 24-nation resolution calling for new subcommittee talks as soon as possible.

scientists and a strong advisory group of outstanding experts reporting to him and to Eisenhower and will have the "active responsibility of helping" Eisenhower follow through on his program.

Rivalry Not To Be Bar Also, through Killian Eisenhower intends to be "assured" that the program is closely integrated and that such things as rivalry between Army, Air Force and Navy won't get in the way.

Further, Eisenhower said, Killian "will see to it that those projects which experts" have judged to have the "highest potential shall advance with the utmost speed."

That sounds as if Killian could override thinking in the Defense Department. But that's not clear. A few sentences later, Eisenhower said the missile director in the Defense Department has enough authority to prevent any interservice or administrative blocks.

Suppose the missile director, advised by his experts, thinks one thing and Killian, advised by his experts, thinks something else. What happens? Eisenhower, presumably, would make the decision. But it isn't clear.

Some Experiences Eisenhower since 1953 has appointed a number of men to jobs as special assistants to him in various fields ranging from psychological warfare to coordinating foreign policies.

Not all of them could be said to have had happy experiences. Most notable unhappy experience was that of Harold Stassen, the President's assistant on disarmament. Stassen had a staff of his own, housed in a building across the street from the White House. He devoted all his time to disarmament. Then this year he went into 5½ months of negotiations with the Russians.

He found out the hard way who was boss: Secretary of State Dulles, who in the end, while Stassen was still negotiating, treated him as a messenger boy. Finally Stassen was moved out from under Eisenhower's wing and put under Dulles'.

WASHINGTON (U.S.A.)—The Truman and Eisenhower administrations both fell asleep. They were shocked awake by a war and a Sputnik.

It is not clear whether President Truman ever fully understood—or that President Eisenhower does now—the threat from Russian progress in missiles, satellites and science.

The Russians have outstripped this country in satellites, probably in intercontinental missiles, and in emphasis on training scientists and engineers. Why?

No one has pointed the finger more sharply than Werner von Braun.

Helped On Rockets As a German he helped develop the Nazis' V2 rocket against Britain in World War II. Now, as an American citizen, he is one of this country's top missile experts. He says:

This country had no ballistic missiles program worth mentioning between 1945 and 1951, or until one year after the Korean War started this country into realization of Russia's military intentions.

But von Braun indirectly also blames the Eisenhower administration for the present lag by saying we did not work hard enough on missiles "during the first 6 to 10 years" after World War II.

Started In 1955 That puts the date—when this country began to push its missile program hardest—at 1955, or two years after Eisenhower took office.

Those were 10 years in which the Russians, judging from the results now appearing, laid the groundwork for their missile and satellite development.

Years from now it may seem unbelievable that Eisenhower could say—as he did in his Thursday night broadcast—that until now he had been getting top scientific advice instead of having it organized.

Now he's setting out to organize it by appointing President James R. Killian of Massachusetts Institute of Technology as his special assistant to coordinate an American scientific defense effort.

Unless he has real power—and it is not clear that he has—he may be bypassed or undercut by heads of government agencies and projects.

SEVEN WILL GET COURT HEARING IN SCHOOL CASE

Editor's note—AP correspondent Reiman Morin is touring the South, reappraising developments and attitudes in the wake of the Little Rock school integration crisis.

By REIMAN MORIN

CLINTON, Tenn. (U.S.A.)—The great struggle over school desegregation is touching Clinton again this week.

Six men and a woman are scheduled to return today to the same federal courtroom in Knoxville where the history-making "Clinton trials" took place last summer.

The seven—including Northern segregationist John Kasper—were convicted of conspiracy to violate a federal injunction against interfering with the enrollment of Negro children in Clinton High School. An all-white jury handed down the verdict.

Ask For New Trial Defense lawyers appealed. U. S. Dist. Judge Robert L. Taylor, who presided over the original trial, will hear motions for a new trial. What's the atmosphere in Clinton today?

How has the pretty little mountain town accepted desegregation?

Most important, how did the people and the students react to the news of violence around another high school—the one in Little Rock?

Sooner or later, everybody you talk with in Clinton today uses the word "quiet." There have been a few flurries. But over-all, they say, "quiet."

Six Negro children, four boys and two girls, are attending classes in the high school today.

No Police Escort

They enrolled Sept. 3. That was the day when Gov. Orval Faubus ordered National Guardsmen to keep Negroes out of Central High School in Little Rock.

The Clinton Six go to school without escort. No police action has been necessary to protect them in and out of its halls.

The two boys have not attempted to sign up for football or any competitive sports. But all six children are in physical education classes with white students.

Most of them go home for lunch. One or two, however, eat in the school cafeteria.

None has attended any of the school's social functions. "They're not forbidden," says W. D. Human, the high school principal. "They just didn't come. I suppose it's a matter of choice with them, just like the choices of people in other social matters."

Senator Asks For NATO Guided Missile Center

By STANLEY JOHNSON
PARIS (AP)—U. S. Sen. Henry Jackson (D-Wash.) Tuesday called for the immediate establishment of a NATO guided missile training center.

The senator told the formal opening session of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Parliamentary Assembly such a center would train soldiers, engineers and technicians from all 15 member countries in the use of missiles.

As the Parliament members from the 15 allies met, France's top soldier, Marshal Alphonse Juin, called in an interview for a "real NATO pool" of atomic arms. He said each of the principal NATO members—a and France in particular—should have a stock of nuclear arms.

Make Own Weapons
The marshal, former NATO commander in Central Europe, said France could make her own nuclear weapons and "could even have her own (nuclear) arms soon."

Jun's statements were published in the newspaper Aurore against a background of complaints by other NATO members against the British-American nuclear monopoly. Only Monday night Gen. Marie-Emil Bethouart, a French senator, called for "a common program, not only in research but in the use of atomic weapons."

Jackson, a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, told reporters his proposal for a guided missile center has the full backing of President Eisenhower and the Pentagon.

Institute Of Studies
Speaking to the NATO Assembly, he also urged immediate creation of a North Atlantic Institute of defense studies staffed by scientists, mathematicians, physicists and economists. It would be attached to SHAPE, NATO's military headquarters outside Paris.

This proposal, however, has not been cleared with the White House.

Jackson also urged that NATO adopt an eight-point scientific training and educational program to swell the NATO countries' supplies of scientists.

The Soviet Sputniks, he warned, "are a sober reminder that in certain areas of missile development, the Soviets now lead our own community. . . . It should now be clear we are in all-out competition."

Jackson is chairman of the Assembly's Scientific Committee. He developed his program over the past year with the aid of such experts as Dr. James Killian, new U.S. missile czar.

The Assembly, made up of Parliament members from the 15 NATO countries, has only consultative powers, but its recommendations are expected to influence final decisions to be taken when President Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Macmillan and other chiefs of government come here next month for a session of the ruling NATO Council.

Eisenhower said in a telegram read to the Assembly on Tuesday by Rep. Wayne Hays (D-Ohio): "I am sure that your conclusions will be of interest and significance to the heads of government and I, for one, will be looking forward with interest to the results of your deliberations."

The President said present conditions make "NATO more essential today than ever before in maintaining world peace and stability."

SAYS MOONLET GIVES MANKIND ONLY 2 CHOICES
NEW YORK (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson says the Russian earth satellites are a sign that mankind has to choose "either extinction or the human brotherhood that has been the vision of visionaries since the beginning of time."

The twice-defeated Democratic candidate for president said Monday night that science has forced humanity "to a crossroad from which there is no turning back, no escape — and just one road that leads upward."

Stevenson told the National Conference of Christians and Jews that he was disturbed that the United States did not launch the first space satellite.

"Good Or Evil"
"Yet I know," he added, "as a citizen of the world and as a member of tomorrow, that the basic issue is no longer the supremacy of nations. It is the supremacy of man for good or for evil, for survival or suicide."

Stevenson's remarks were part of a dinner speech at the end of which he conferred the organization's Pioneer in Brotherhood Medal on Albert M. Greenfield, Philadelphia philanthropist and department store executive.

A second brotherhood medal was awarded to Dr. Arthur H. Compton, atomic scientist and Nobel Prize winner, by Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, Indian high commissioner to London.

David Sarnoff, chairman of the board of the Radio Corp. of America, presided at the dinner and asserted that "we are now engaged in a race between barbarism and brotherhood."

DEMS HOPE TO BREAK GOP GRIP ON DELEGATION

By JOHN KOENIG JR.
AP Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic leaders here today broke the 17-13 hold that Republicans have on the Pennsylvania Congressional delegation.

Republicans retained the only Pennsylvania seat up for a vote in last week's election, but Democrats noted that John A. LaFore's margin of victory was much smaller than that of former Rep. Samuel J. McConnell last year.

The balloting was in a special election to choose a successor to the veteran McConnell in Pennsylvania's 13th District, traditionally Republican Montgomery County McConnell resigned effective Sept. 1.

Win Local Elections
The Democrats' biggest boost, however, came from the rousing majorities they won in local elections in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Scranton, along with taking six majorities in other cities where Republicans had ruled the roost for years.

Smashing Democratic victories around the state were hailed as indicators of a still greater victory next year. That's when successors will be chosen for Gov. George M. Leader and U. S. Sen. Edward Martin (R-Pa.). Martin is retiring, and Leader is barred by the state constitution from succeeding himself.

Republicans, meanwhile, pointed to such scattered victories as winning the office of Burgess of Waynesburg, home town of Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman, an aspirant to Democratic nomination for governor.

Many GOP Candidates
Although the GOP has some 30 hopefuls for governor and senator no individual has gained a foothold toward party or office on approval for nomination.

Democratic sentiment, meanwhile, appears to be crystallizing both in Harrisburg and Washington around a ticket headed by Leader for senator and Mayor Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia for governor.

And further, Democratic observers say, they are confident that this team not only can win the nomination of the divided Democratic party but would win in the general election. Behind this opinion is their belief that Pennsylvania Republicans are split even more than the Democrats.

Lancaster Almanac Predicts Hard Winter For Much Of United States

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—For those who turn to famed Baer's Almanac for tips on weather, well-being and the abundant life generally, word went out today that—Much of the United States will have a doosy of a winter from January to late March, with "major" cold waves and frequent storms.

By next Thanksgiving, turkeys, prescribed to obviate carving, may be sold through vending machines. And if you eat sausage on New Year's Day you will be full of vigor all year long.

No Sputniks There
That last item is from the treasury of Pennsylvania Dutch sayings. Baer's Almanac, publishing its 133rd edition, richly abounds in such maxims.

Old-fashioned, even austere, in format, the almanac is mainly traditionalist in its approach to prophecy too. It is no surprise to see in the 1958 issue no mention of Sputniks or space travel.

But that is not to say that the moonlore.

Back in the 1890s, the almanac says, it compiled among the Pennsylvania Dutch certain information about moon phases, and that information is considered as sound now as it ever was. Samples: Make wine in the dark of the moon. Marry in the light of the moon. Hair should be cut on the first Friday after the new moon.

Baer's is great for change of pace, a sudden switch from the astral plane to reprinted jokes such as this one, about microbes, and described as the shortest in the English language:

"Adam
"Had 'em."

He denied the U.S.S.R. had outstripped America in technological progress and asserted Americans were unrealistic about the Soviet space satellites and their implication in the struggle between East and West.

In a speech at a testimonial dinner given in his honor he said that while Russia claims to have the know-how to produce intercontinental missiles, "our scientists and engineers are convinced that we can do the same."

Two On A Par
Wilson, 67-year-old former president of General Motors Corp., said it was a tossup whether the United States or Russia was ahead in the missile race.

He said he believed the two countries were on a par, give or take a few months.

He said the American Strategic Air Command bomber force "is still the great deterrent to war and will be for some time."

He said peace and freedom will not be won by arms alone. This, he said, raised the difficult question of how much military strength is enough and the problem of how a stable economy is to be maintained that would capture the minds of men throughout the world by having them realize the advantages of a free society.

"While the military threat may be very real, and we must be prepared to meet it, as a nation we must also face the realities of the conflict in ideologies between the Communist East and the freedom-loving West," he said.

WILSON DENIES U. S. LAGGING IN MISSILE RACE

DETROIT (AP)—Former Defense Secretary Wilson Monday night defended administration policies in the ballistic missile race with Soviet Russia and declared that this country was not lagging behind.

Gets $25,000 For Paper Snake Scare

LOS ANGELES (AP)—When Mrs. Bertha Ekman opened the can labeled "peanut brittle" she found it wasn't, and the judgment she got from a jury wasn't peanuts, either.

The jury awarded her $25,000 yesterday. Mrs. Ekman had testified that when she opened the phony can of peanut brittle, paper snakes sprang out at her.

She sued Wilmington, Calif., cafe owner James Munson for $117,250, claiming that the shock caused her to fall backward and that she required hospitalization four times as a result.

Munson contended his customers should expect such practical jokes.

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Bureau of Highway Safety Director O. D. Shipley says those new cars with four backup lights on the rear are illegal. The state motor vehicle code states that cars may not have more than two such lights, one on each side.

Shipley said the bureau will consider the law satisfied if the wiring and light bulbs are removed from the extra lights, leaving the covers for ornamental purposes.

IKE TO OUTLINE TRAINING PLAN FOR SCIENTISTS

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower outlines to the nation tonight his program for training more American youths as scientists in the space era struggle against Russia.

Some key scientific advisers to the President reportedly have suggested to him that the federal government grant scholarships to promising students as an incentive. But the White House declined advance discussion of what Eisenhower will recommend.

For tonight's coast-to-coast television-radio address, the second in a "chins up" series, the President travels by plane to Oklahoma City.

Speech On TV
The speech will be carried live at 10:30 p. m. EST, by NBC-TV.

and all four major radio networks. ABC and CBS television will carry the address from film at 11:15 p. m.

Eisenhower will speak at Municipal Auditorium in connection with Oklahoma's "Arrows to Atoms" 50th anniversary of statehood. He plans to start back to Washington by plane immediately after the speech.

The President's drive to overtake and surpass Russia in development of missiles and other weapons of the future started formally last Thursday night. In a nationwide TV address then he named James R. Killian, president of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, as a special assistant to coordinate the drive.

COOPERATIVE FRUIT GROWERS USING HUGE NEW STORAGE

The Cooperative Fruit Growers of Adams County are doing what they can to boost the demand for fresh apples the year around.

They opened this fall their huge new 200x150-foot storage building at Aspers to provide storage space for the high quality apple crop being produced this year by their members growers. The big storage building, which was a year in construction, will handle 200,000 bushels of apples.

A year in construction, it is of monolithic slab construction, something new in storage buildings in this area. It was built by Hill and Ivins, Chambersburg contractors.

To Permit Orderly Marketing

With fully insulated floor and side walls and a concrete roof, the storage will hold the apples at a 32-degree temperature throughout the storage season.

Cost About $250,000

The storage, one of the biggest cold storage buildings in the area, has its 25-foot high walls and the roof insulated with 1 1/2 inch sheets of two-inch thick styrofoam. Work was started on the structure in June of 1956 and there was delay last year

John Peters (left), president of the Cooperative Fruit Growers of Adams County, is shown with Wesley Kriebel, extension agricultural marketing agent for the area, as they stand in the new cold storage house at Aspers, built by the cooperative. The house will hold 200,000 bushels of the choice Adams County apple crop.

Cost figures on the new structure were placed at upwards of $250,000.

Wesley Kriebel, extension agricultural marketing agent for five counties in this section of the state, has been working with John Peters, president of the Cooperative Fruit Growers, to see that new marketing methods are developed to help sell this year's crop of high quality apples.

Mr. Peters said that this year's crop of apples is highly colored, free of disease and insect damage and of excellent size. "The percentage of marketable fruit is high," Mr. Peters said.

"The brand new storage facilities of the Cooperative Fruit Growers of Adams County," Mr. Kriebel says, "will be a big help in moving the apples to market in an orderly fashion."

Located along the Reading railroad and close to the Biglerville-Carlisle Highway the storage building is accessible both for rail shipments and for trucking.

The marketing specialist pointed out that in 1900 every American ate 62 pounds of apples a year. "Last year we ate only 20 pounds per person. From this it appears that not enough Americans believe in the old adage that an apple a day keeps the doctor away. But growers in Adams County are going to do everything they can to get America back on an apple-eating schedule."

Says Penna. Canal Opposed By Pennsy

WASHINGTON (AP)—An effort is being made to revive an old plan to link the Ohio River and Lake Erie with a canal.

Rep. Clark (D-Pa.) said today he has asked the Army Engineers to draft a resolution for presentation to Congress. If adopted, it would direct the engineers to prepare a report "adequate in scope to enable Congress to appropriate money for the construction of locks and dams" for the canal.

An Ohio canal of this type was approved by Congress as far back as 1925, but has been consistently fought ever since by railroads and other industries in the area.

Clark told a reporter one of the chief opponents of the canal is the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Inch Of Snow Falls In Some Sections

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Wet and fairly mild weather was the outlook for broad areas of the country today.

Rain continued to drench the far northwestern part of the country from northern California northward into Washington. Showers, with snow at higher elevations, sprinkled the northern Plateau and in the Rockies. Snow falls in some areas measured about an inch.

Southerly winds carried moist air from the Gulf of Mexico northward through the Mississippi Valley and adjacent areas. Rain fell in sections as far north as southern Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Radio Prague announced the death. The veteran Communist would have been 73 next month. He had been in poor health since suffering a severe heart attack in August 1955. Nine days ago he had another heart attack and the Prague Sanatorium said last night his condition had deteriorated. Zapotocky was one of the founders of the Communist party in Czechoslovakia. That was in 1921, a year after a meeting in Russia with Lenin which began a lasting loyalty to the Soviet Union. Conservative in his communism, Zapotocky did not go along with the policy changes of Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov after Stalin died in 1953. Under his influence as president, Czechoslovakia retained the memory and symbolism of Stalinism after Nikita Khrushchev began to chip away at them in Russia.

Despite some arrests of youths, Czechoslovakia under Zapotocky remained quiet when Poland on one side and Hungary on the other were inflamed last fall with anti-Soviet feeling.

In 27 football meetings, with arch rival Connecticut, the University of Massachusetts holds a 14-13 lead in the series.

When there's just a little baked or boiled ham leftover, chop it fine and add it to scrambled eggs to be served at breakfast.

Names Are Sought For Service Award

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Bar Assn. today sought nominations for recipients of its annual distinguished service award.

Harry L. Siegel, Lewistown, chairman of the award committee, pointed out that the award is not limited to members of the legal profession. Any individual, body or institution, lay or legal, is eligible.

The distinguished service award was originated in 1956, and went that year to chief Justice Horace Stern, of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, now retired. Last year the recipients were J. Campbell Brandon and Carmen V. Mariano, both of Butler, co-founders Arbitration Plan.

As an avocation, James P. Bender, treasurer of the Bethlehem Steel Co., conducts a cattle research farm near Coopersburg, Pa. He recently gave 60 Holsteins and 30 Guernseys to Rutgers for the University's Dairy Research Farm.

It cannot help the hippo, for he has no bills to pay, And rather likes the wet and mud, by nature, anyway. It can, however, help you with your own bill-paying chores: When weather's bad, you use the mails — no need to go outdoors! "IT" IS A CHECKING ACCOUNT — A WONDERFUL CONVENIENCE "WEATHER OR NOT."
